Elixir of the Warrior

Behold
The ends of time, are breaking fast
Defend
Within the way itself, is where death is felt
Destroy
All within your way, feel no pain
Resist
To defeat death, overcome yourself
Cut down, the Gods, behold, the one
Defy
The world without, to fight within
Inside
A soldier's fight, is our own fight
The war
My former Lord, enveloped in the sword
And thus
To win at first, to win at life
To fight
All within the way, lose your way
And see
The manifest, at our breath
This time
Nothing there, no despair
The past
The wind will show, the lies below
Below
The power, amongst us
All
That you see, is not to be
The fall
Of what you know, the path you sew
The war
My former Lord, enveloped in the sword
And thus
To win it all, to break the world
Yeah, that's right

Think, not, feel, strength
Crush, all, act, now

As the black is calling, listen to the voice within
You must restore the balance, crushing all attempts to win

The sword of honor must be carried by the chosen ones
You and I, we'll destroy the sun

We, have got, the power, amongst us
All
That you see, is not to be
The fall
The war
My former Lord, enveloped in the sword
And thus
To win it all, to break the world, yeah
