I can't believe this lives
Inside of me, the rift
I ignore the spell
But I know myself all too well
I can see it has
Control of me, this hat
I try not to tell
Cuz I know myself all too well
I must the face the serpent's hail
I can't commit to what
It wants me, I must
These stories I tell
But I know myself all too well
I can't redeem these nails
But strength in me prevails
I can't release or fail
Cuz I know myself all too well
I must the face the serpent's hail
I walk inside the shed of hell
I emerge with evil quelled
I break the back of all the pale
I stop the clock for seven nails
Crush all who want to challenge me
I shall rule
Crush all who want to challenge me
This wretched I see
This haunting I flee
I must face this hell
Cuz I know myself all too well
Crush all who want to challenge me
Crush all who want to challenge me
I shall rule
Crush all who want to challenge me
