Empty Forever

Follow me
I'll show a new love
Escape the perils of the end
You walk the line
You need my help
But first surrender from yourself
Some turn to hate when they fall
Another soul that I can take without a trace
To weak to face the world alone they'll never know
It's on the wall… this ancient hope that I create
To prey upon what they can't solve
You search for nothing
Empty forever
Empty is what you know
I give you anger
I use it for my fucking goal
Just one more drink from my well
Just give to me and I end all your pain
To fear is not a new fault of your own
But you succumb to the weakness of your day
I prey upon what you can't solve
Give me to your weakness
Empty forever
You search for what you hope
I feed you anger
I take control of your soul
Fall into my pit of answers and you're gone
You are my slave
You are your own sacrifice
