Well she welcomes back the storm
This is her norm
She travels far and more
Her sacred code that she upholds without pause
Her silence kills and her honor has no laws
Her shadow is her cause

Her shadow is her cause

Well the day has come and gone
This is the place where she finds her chosen one
She takes her time and she watches from afar
Her breath is slow as she focuses on flaws
Those deadly eyes he saw

Those deadly eyes he saw

She couldn't run from her sacrifice
His fate was sealed when he gave into vice
She commits him to pay the price
He can't erase this blackened life
